

WCAS UNISON – 2017, the 2nd Annual Intercollegiate fest organized by Waljat College of Applied Sciences.

Inter-college events are some of the most happening events in the city. WCAS UNISON – 2017, the 2nd Annual Intercollegiate fest organized by Waljat College of Applied Sciences (WCAS), KOM, and Muscat took place from 2nd May to 4th May, 2017. It started with the inaugural ceremony done by Honorable chief guest, Dr. Ahmed Al Riyami, Dean of College of Applied Sciences, Sur and Dr. S L Gupta, Dean of WCAS.

Dr. Seema Arora, the club coordinator (Fine Arts and Activity Club) and student coordinator of the club, Meraj Unissa organized activities such as ART VAULT, GRAFFITI and STROKES & SPLASHES. Dr. Gupta unveiled a big canvas with His Majesty and Oman as theme, beautifully painted by WCAS students. Students from Indian School Muscat & Indian School Mabela, Middle East College, Mazoon College and the host college WCAS actively participated and have shown great interest in participation in such events in future. WCAS has served as a platform for the young artists to express their love for the artistic talent and creative minds. Ms. Ruwaiya Said Al-Rabaani, Manager Student Affairs, was also thrilled and overjoyed with the art displays. Ms. Iman Freish Nasser Al-Habsi, Ms. Thuraya Said Ibrahim Al Farsi and Ms. Ruwaiya from WCAS judged the competitions with Ms. Dhanlaxmi. Installation art was the highlight of ART VAULT.

Dr. Gupta and Dr Riyami were surprised to know that the art exhibits have been created by such young artists. The theme for the Graffiti was Power of Prayer or Youth which enabled them to signify value and significance of these through their brushes, strokes and colours. WCAS left a mark of good organizing platform on the minds of young art loving crowd. Art and activities bring people together as one community- which has no boundaries of language, region, religion and country and through this Intercollege and School fest, WCAS could prove the same.
