TRADITIONAL & MOTHER'S DAY

(Fine Arts and Activity Club)

Date: 27th March 2018

The Fine Arts and Activity Club of Waljat College of Applied Sciences (WCAS) had organized Traditional and Mother's day celebration on 27th March 2018. The events included Canvas Painting, Calligraphy and Card making competitions among the students. The calligraphy event had begun at 10.30am and comprised of five individuals from different backgrounds. It was based on the theme "Mother's Day" to express emotions towards mothers. Another event Canvas painting took place at 11.15am based on theme "Oman's Tradition". Finally the day came to an end with Card making competition based on Mother's Day. Students had participated individually as well as in teams of two and had creatively displayed their talents.

This event was an indoor activity which had taken place in Waljat college campus at Canteen top floor. Basic materials required were provided to all the participants. The event witnessed immensely talented and creative participants. The activities came to an end by 01.00pm when the respective judges- Ms. Alycia Sebastian, Ms. Akhila Rajan along with Club Coordinator Dr. Seema Arora had arrived to witness the final work.
